

CL-65 TYPE RATED PILOTS

GoJet Airlines is offering the following incentives to all pilots holding a CL-65 Type Rating and that are Current. (Current is defined as having a Line Check passed within the last 12 months). All candidates approved for the program have the ability to obtain Early Seniority if they choose (they can accrue up to 6 months of seniority before flying with GoJet).

The full interview process is not required for employees in good standing with their current employer.

REQUIREMENTS

- ✈ Current & Qualified CL – 65 Type Rating
- ✈ No disciplinary action in the last 24 months
- ✈ Probationary period at current employer must be complete

BENEFITS

- ✈ $12,000 Signing Bonus (paid in three installments of $4,000 during first year)
- ✈ $3,000 Training Bonus (paid in three installments of $1,000 during first 90 days)
- ✈ An abbreviated training syllabus may be completed in some cases
- ✈ Ability to carry over longevity from your previous employer at a rate of 1:1
- ✈ Up to 6 months – Early Seniority

New hire First Officers and Captains to come to the first 2 days of InDoc training, receive a Seniority number and then be placed on personal leave for up to a maximum of 180 days.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

- ✈ If you join GoJet as a First-Officer with Longevity, you do NOT start at new hire pay. You start at the pay rate corresponding to the longevity that you are bringing to GoJet.
- ✈ A second year First Officer joining GoJet as a Direct Entry Captain would make a minimum of $75,441 during their first year.
- ✈ GoJet continues to increase the size of DTW & DEN bases, equating to easy travel for East & West Coast commuters.
